MINOR TURF REFORM.

In advocating certain measures of reform, the Morning Telegraph very correctly points out that western tracks are far in advance of those near New York in features designed to add to the comfort and convenience of patrons of the turf and for the more prompt and easy dispatch of the details of racing. Morning Telegraph's article is reproduced here with the suggestion that what it says in regard to "doping" and lax supervision of jockeys applies also to more than one western track as well as to the eastern tracks:

"For some time past the stewards of the Jockey Club have contemplated a closer supervision of the relations between apprentice jockeys and their employers. So far the matter has not passed much beyond the primary stages of informal discussion, but a representative of The Morning Telegraph was told yesterday that the stewards recognized the necessity of action, and that they would probably formulate some rule governing apprentices before the season began.

"The relations of apprentices with owners to whom they become indentured has been a constant source of annoyance. Boys run away, and then some owners refuse to pay them the stipulated wages due them according to their contracts. Many of these cases are taken into court for final adjudication. The Jockey Club desires to avoid this. It is anxious to provide safeguards which will protect both apprentices and owners.

"It is not improbable that the stewards may decide to take entire charge of these contracts, and at the same time adopt some rule which will discipline both apprentice and owner in case of a violation of contract. It is a rather difficult matter to handle, and that is no doubt the reason why the stewards desire to thoroughly consider the proposition from every point of view before announcing decisive action.

"While the stewards are thus seeking to improve racing for the coming season they might profitably review a number of features of importance to the public. These relate mainly to the details of track management, in which it is generally conceded the east is far behind the west.

"In the west the jockey board on which the names of the jockeys in each race are displayed and the bulletin board indicating the three placed horses are modern and up to date. They can be manipulated easily and rapidly, and require the services of one man, instead of two or three, as at the big tracks here. They are as much an improvement over the antediluvian system in vogue in the east as a trolley car is over an old-fashioned stage coach.

"The plan of calling owners and jockeys upstairs into the stewards' stand here is also at variance with the procedure in the west. There the stewards go down stairs to an inclosure underneath the stand and question owners and jockeys in a way that does not attract to them the notice of everybody on the race track.

"In themselves these are perhaps matters of no really great concern, yet all the small details of turf government, when taken together, affect the convenience and the financial interests of the public who support racing. Some needed reforms, however, are of vital consequence.

"For example, during the winter several prominent trainers have asserted that the 'dope' was freely used last season, and in some leading stables, too. Whether these assertions were based on ascertainable facts, The Morning Telegraph is unable to state. It is, however, certain that on many occasions last year horses ran as though they had been treated with speed-producing injections.

"That is a gross imposition, because horses which become accustomed to these stimulants will never perform well unless so treated, and their use gives designing owners and trainers a tremendous advantage over the public.

"The lax supervision of jockeys in the paddock ought also to be remedied. It was notorious last season that emissaries from the betting ring had far too many privileges. They were permitted to question jockeys at the jockey room, and, in fact, they had every opportunity to acquire such information as might be desirable from the jockeys without contravening the rules already in force."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Peep o'Day, in Charles Orr's stable, is considered as one of the most improved horses now in training at Brighton. The air at Brighton has done him a world of good. He has always been a delicate feeder, but now takes all he is allowed with an apparent relish. He has filled out and seems to have taken on about thirty pounds of good flesh since his appearance at Morris Park last season.

Byron McClelland was not purchased for Mr. Marcus Daly but for a wealthy resident of Montana whose name is not divulged for the present. Byron McClelland, Serrano and John Havlin passed through Chicago yesterday in charge of Trainer J. K. Redmon, en route for Montana, where they will be raced next summer. Redmon will handle them and will also open a public training stable.

According to reports from Churchill Downs Galloway is going along splendidly with his work, and gives promise of making a great showing this spring. Some people say he looks better than anything on the track, and Mr. McLean's Cincinnati friends are in hopes that the colt will keep up his good work, and, more than that, show his real quality by winning the Kentucky Derby for the Cincinnati stable.

The Western Union Telegraph company opened up a branch office in the press stand at the Ingleside track yesterday (February 26). Mr. Green, the Jockey Club Secretary, says they—the telegraph company—are open for all kinds of business, but smiles complacently and mildly insinuates that to-morrow will be another day.—San Francisco Examiner.

The following have been declared from the Montgomery Handicap, which will be run the opening day of the spring Memphis meeting: Bing Binger, Seabrooke, Urania, Dacien, Milwaukee, St. Roque, Requital, Basquil, Johnny Bohan, Brandywine, Lieber Karl, Sea Robber, Sligo II and Berclair.

According to Wm. Hayward Louis Stuart's sister to Damsel, which was one of the most highly tried yearlings at Sheephead Bay last fall, has developed into about the grandest looking 2-year-old he ever saw. Mr. Stuart bought the filly for $100. He recently refused $3000 for her.

A dispatch from Louisville says that Gardner & Son's three-year-old colt Bangle arrived there Thursday consigned to Pat Dunne, who will give him a special preparation for the Kentucky Derby. Bangle has fully recovered from his recent injury, which was not of a serious nature.

J. Hull Davidson has telegraphed from New York that he will be in Lexington within a few days and will at once prepare and announce a racing program for the Lexington tracks to cover the days from April 9 to May 3, inclusive.

Fred Berlew has been engaged to train for W. C. Daly the coming season. He reported at Daly's Gravesend stable a day or two ago, and is now in charge there.

George Cadwallader's colt Grayling is reported to be on the verge of a hopeless breakdown.

Trainers at Gravesend say the track was never at any time in better shape than it is just now. The frost is out of the ground and the track is kept harrowed up deep, not merely a path around the inner rail, but the entire width of the course. The Brooklyn Handicap might be run today, so far as the condition of the going is concerned.

Jockey Joe Scherrer has been asked by Baker & Gentry to name terms for this year and will probably contract to ride for that firm.

HAMBURG'S ENGAGEMENTS.

It was stated yesterday on good authority that Hamburg would not be entered in any of the Saratoga stakes. Just why the great son of Hanover is to be kept away from the Springs this year could not be learned. The 3-year-old events there will be hardly valuable enough to tempt him, for one thing, although well worth winning, and besides, it looks as though Mr. Daly had decided to give the colt an easy season.

From present indications his only appearances until the fall meetings will be in the Withers, Belmont, Realization and Brighton Cup. Possibly also Mr. Daly may have an idea of taking Hamburg out to Montana to show the people there just what a high class thoroughbred looks like. Meanwhile the great racer is contentedly munching oats in Lakeland's stable at Brighton Beach and doing as well as could be expected.—Morning Telegraph.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Sportsmen wintering at Bermuda are looking forward to some pleasant outings with the thoroughbreds this month. The annual spring meeting promoted by the Bermuda Hunt Club is scheduled for March 22, under English Jockey Club rules. The red letter event is the Bermuda Derby, at one mile, horses to carry 147 pounds. The high scale of weights is adopted in order that gentlemen riders may get a chance with the professionals. Other events on the card are the Ladies' Plate, for all ages, one mile; the Shelly Bay Stakes, for ponies, one mile; the Shaft Stakes, for harness horses, five furlongs; the Feather Plate, five furlongs; the Galloway Stakes, five furlongs, and the Winter Handicap, at a mile and a quarter. The meeting, which will take place at the Shelly Bay race track, is quite a fashionable function. Much of the track, which is a half a mile in circuit, is cut through the solid rock and coral, and to say that the going is hard is putting it mildly.—New York Sun.

Tillo is in grand shape and it is certain that he will be especially prepared for the first of the big handicaps—the Brooklyn. His splendid, sturdy conformation makes him a dangerous quantity. He is certainly one of the most racy looking horses in training. Looks are not everything, of course, but Tillo's performances last season are nothing to be ashamed of, when it is considered that the colt was sick from the time he came east and was never near his true form.

The Queens County Jockey Club announces the following entries for the Carter Handicap up to date: Junior, Sun Up, Sailor King, Varus, Don't Care, Winged Foot, Tobias, Braw Lad, Kinnikinnick, Leedsville, Irish Reel, Our Johnny, Miss Tenny, Floral Park, Handpress, Bannock, Demagogue, Thomas Cat, Premier, Zella, Belle of Erin, Marsian, Storm King, The Manxman, Tanis, Damien, Warrenton, Ortolan, Debride, Senator, Zanone, Sensational. The entries for the other stakes of the Queens County Jockey Club are as follows: Rockaway Stake, 30 entries; Flushing, 22; Avergne, 26; Rose, 40; Canadsie, 38; Ozone, 40; Jamaica, 32.

MONTANA'S 1898 RACING.

Ed. A. Tipton, manager of the Montana race meetings was in Chicago yesterday en route to Anaconda. Mr. Tipton looks forward to a busy and profitable turf season in Montana. The meeting at Butte is to begin July 2 and end August 6. It will be closely followed by the Anaconda meeting, commencing August 11 and closing September 10. This provides for fifty-eight days racing, thirty-one at Butte and twenty-seven at Anaconda.

Mr. Tipton said that the only thing he feared was a scarcity of horses. Last year a large number from California raced at the two Montana tracks but the formation of the new California summer circuit promises to keep most of them at home this year. This condition of affairs would seem to create a golden opportunity for owners in this section of the west. Horses can be taken to Montana much cheaper than to California and it is no exaggeration to say that there is no place in this country where more money can be won at the racing game. The volume of speculation is simply enormous. The stakes and purses are on a very liberal scale and the treatment awarded visiting turfmen of good standing is of the most cordial and generous character.

Twenty stake events have been opened for the two meetings, leading off with the Montana Derby, to be decided at Butte on the opening day, July 2. It is of the guaranteed value of $2,500, 1 1/4 miles. The other stakes are as follows:

At Butte—The Young Misses, 3-year-old fillies, 1-2 mile, $1,000. Bitter Root, 2-year-olds, 1-2 mile, $1,000. Silver Bow, 2-year-olds, 5 1/2 furlongs, $1,000. Northwestern Handicap, 2-year-olds, 5 1/2 furlongs, $1,000. Yellowstone Handicap, 2 and 3-year-olds, 3-4 mile, $1,000. Silver City Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, 1 1/4 miles, $1,500. Butte Selling, all ages, 7-8 mile, $1,000. West Side Handicap, all ages, 1 1/8 miles, $1,000. Hot Times, all ages, 4 1/2 furlongs, $1,000. Inter-Mountain, 3-year-olds and upward, 5-8 mile, $1,000.

At Anaconda—The Daly Stakes, 3-year-olds, 1 1/8 miles, $2,000. Montana Hotel, 2-year-old fillies, 4 1/2 furlongs, $1,000. Last Chance, 2-year-old fillies, 5-8 mile, $1,000. Ogden, 2-year-olds, 5 1/2 furlongs, $1,000. Ravelli Selling, 3-year-olds, 1 mile, $1,000. Copper City Handicap, 3-year-olds and upward, 1 1/4 miles, $1,500. Anaconda Handicap, all ages, 1 mile, $1,000. The Smeltermen's Handicap, all ages, 5 1/2 furlongs.

Time, 12, 24, 37, 50.

Winner—Gr. c. by Goldfinch—Helen Scratch.
Start straggling. Gold Scratch was mildly ridden out. He was lucky, ran to the notch and is in sharp form. Primavera should have done better. She is best in mud. Watch her. Mossbrae is a good colt. He closed stoutly after getting into pockets and wabbling about the track. Ach was nearly left and unlucky. He was badly ridden too. Formero is not in love

Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; the next three were driving. Wolford was going well in hand when he fell. The accident happened swinging for home. Belle of Fordham came away nicely at the end. Duchess of York was coming strong at the finish. Watch her. Jamboree made up a lot of ground.

Scratched—Globe II, 98; Hano Belle, 105; Nannie Dunn, 102; Little Bramble, 107.

Overweights—Adowa, 2 pounds; Wolford, 2.
